A Message From Executive Director

It is with great pride and passion that I address you today as the Executive Director of Platform for the Unprivileged (PLAFU). Our organization is dedicated to create an efficient, effective and reliable organization that works with the community to offer equitable health, Education, sensitization and bring about development transformation..

PLAFU is a youth led voluntary non-profit organization contributing towards holistic development of vulnerable individuals, households and communities in Uganda through social mobilization and policy advocacy, addressing issues of HIV/AIDS and its associated impact, gender inequality, women and children rights specifically in Reproductive health, food security, livelihood ,environment conservation, orphans care and support and other social- economic and cultural inequality and injustices.

I am inspired by the dedication and compassion of our staff, volunteers, and partners who work tirelessly to create positive change in the lives of over 500 beneficiaries of our projects. Together, we have achieved remarkable milestones, including education bursaries, community empowerment, women groups support and healthcare.

However, our work is far from over. There are still countless individuals and communities facing different challenges. We believe that by working together, we can overcome these obstacles and build a brighter future for all.

I invite you to join us in our mission by supporting our initiative through, donations, volunteering, and advocacy.

Your support is essential to our continued success.

Thank you for your unwavering commitment to create an efficient, effective and reliable organization that works with the community to offer equitable health and bring about development transformation.

Sincerely,

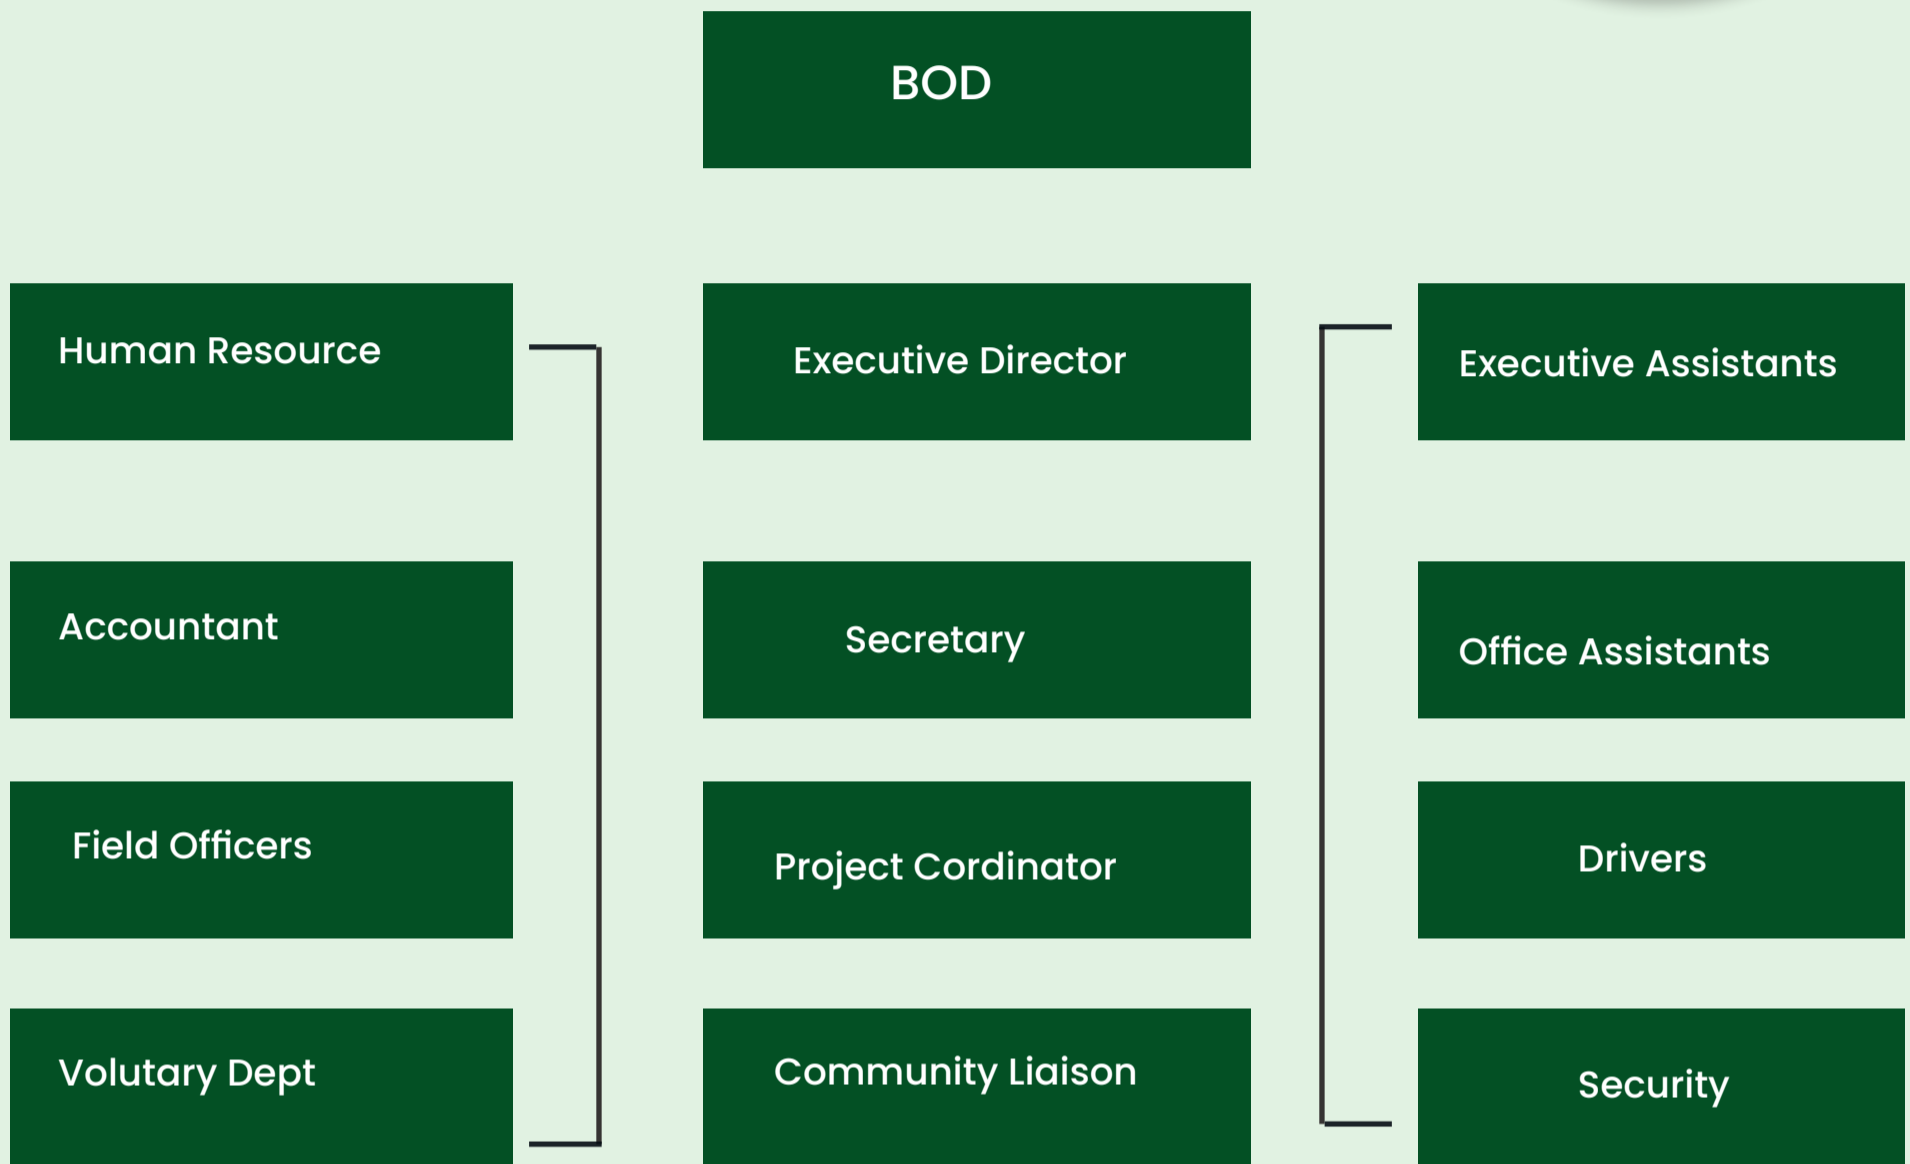

Shumi Nakkazi
